

Supporting Learning through Intelligent and
Socially Informed Technology

<http://hcs.science.uva.nl/AIED2005/>

Call for Tutorials

The AIED2005 Tutorials Chairs invite proposals for tutorials to be held 18-19 July, during the 12th International Conference on Artificial Intelligence in Education, 18-19 July, Amsterdam.

Format and submission requirements

Submissions must be submitted electronically via the AIED2005 paper submission system (<http://hcs.science.uva.nl/AIED2005/submission.html>). Submission must follow the general guidelines as for the main conference papers and include the information requested below. Tutorial proposals should not exceed 3 pages. Tutorial handouts will be published for each accepted tutorial. Accepted tutorials will also produce a one page abstract to be included in the main conference proceedings.

Submit a tutorial proposal following the general submission guidelines, including:

- Title of tutorial
- Objectives to be achieved
- Contents and topics to be addressed (one page description, Table of contents)
- Preferred duration (half or full day)
- Target audience
- Background knowledge expected from the participants
- Format and schedule (allow time for discussion)
- Material to be distributed (handouts, software, etc)
- Equipment needed (PCs, Internet access, etc)
- Anything else attendees should know
- Information about instructor(s): name, title, affiliation, address, phone, email, short biography with experience in instruction (tutorial, teaching)

Important Dates

- February 11, 2005 - Proposals due
- March 31, 2005 - Proposers notified
- April 29, 2005 – One pages summary for the main conference proceedings due

- April 29, 2005 - Tutorial handouts due

Questions and further Information

Contact the AIED2005 Tutorials Chairs:

- Jacqueline Bourdeau (bourdeau@licef.teluq.quebec.ca)
Université du Québec
Canada
- Peter Wiemer-Hastings (peterwh@cti.depaul.edu)
DePaul University
United States of America